

Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia, Inc.

Live the Mission 100,000 hours of Community Service

Create a Compelling Service Story

Stories reveal our common values and mission. Stories can let others see what is possible and call on others to join our efforts to make the world a better place. Share with us how your troop/group/individual is doing their part to making the world a better place.

We may highlight your story in a council publication or contact you for more information.

Contact person: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Troop number: _____ Individual Girl _____ Service Unit: _____

City/Town: _____

What is the Service Project? _____ How many girls were involved? _____

Where is/was the Service Project? _____

How many hours? _____

Who (organization and/or people) will benefit from this project?

Tips for telling a good story:

- Explain why the community needs the service project
- Tell why your troop/group/individual chose to get involved in the project.
- Emphasize how the community is affected by the project.
- Describe why the project was a successful.
- Tell how the girls felt about doing something to help others.
- Use real quotes for girls and/or adults in the story.
- Keep it short and sweet – fewer than 300 words.

Share your story

Return to Jackie Ford, Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia, Inc. jford@gshg.org